WIFE, INJURED IN SECRET JAUNT, IS LYING AT DEATH POINT

Beauty Terribly Injured As She Is Hurlled From Motor At Irvine.

CHANCE IN THOUSAND WOMAN WILL RECOVER

Several Persons Are Hurt In Crashes Occurring On Newport Road

Terribly injured, Mrs. E. M. Williams, beautiful 21-year-old wife of the proprietor of the Williams Taxi-cab Service, Los Angeles, is lying at the point of death at the Santa Ana Hospital, with but one chance in a thousand of recovering.

Mrs. Williams' injuries were sustained in a motorcycle accident at Irvine, late Saturday night, which cut short a trip she was taking to San Diego, unknown to her husband.

The wife was riding on the rear of a motorcycle driven by Phillip Kempster of 3439 Sixth avenue, Los Angeles. Kempster's machine was leading three others.

Motorcycle Slides
Not knowing that he was approaching a curve, Kempster skidded off the road at the Irvine square where William Russ's two daughters and the daughter of Dr. Hardin of Los Angeles were killed. Kempster was righting his machine and had headed back to the road when the front wheel of his machine struck one of the rails of the Santa Fe crossing.

The motorcycle veered, Kempster losing control. Mrs. Williams was pitched over Kempster's head. She struck on her head on one of the rails. Her skull was fractured. Her lower jaw was broken and three ribs on her right side were torn from the backbone.

Husband Dashes Here
Mrs. Williams was rushed to the hospital. Her husband, who lives at 1023 West First street, Los Angeles, was notified and, at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, in a machine driven by E. F. Wismer, one of his chauffeurs, he left Los Angeles at terrific speed, arriving here in one hour.

Williams told the authorities here that he did not know his wife was going to San Diego. He stated that he supposed that his wife was spending the night with her sister, in Los Angeles.

Kempster stated that he met Mrs. Williams about a week ago and that he supposed she was a single woman. Kempster escaped from the accident with a laceration over the right eye and a severe bruise of the left shoulder.

Three Other Couples
There were three other couples in the party: Mr. and Mrs. McMullin, 1023 West Second street, Los Angeles, on one motorcycle; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Tyson, 358 Eleventh street, San Pedro, on another machine; and A. Nelson, of 123 East Second street, San Pedro, and Miss Fay Norris, of 624 West Tenth street, Los Angeles, on another. Kempster left Santa Ana at about 10:10 p. m., Saturday night. The accident at Irvine occurred shortly before 11 o'clock.

Tyson stated that he was behind Kempster and Mrs. Williams and that the first he knew of the accident was when he arrived at the crossing and saw the wrecked machine lying on the road.

Woman Dying
Mrs. Williams is unconscious. Practically no hope is entertained for her recovery.

Williams' chauffeur, at the Libby Motor Company's garage, refused to make any comments.

Man, Wife and Baby Are Pitched From Motor

Crowded off the road by an automobilist who, it is stated, veered suddenly to avoid some broken glass, a motorcycle, with side car attached, went into the ditch alongside the Laguna road, two miles south of the Laguna lakes and, though it did not turn over, threw out its occupants, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Burns and baby, of 409 East Pine street, bruising them and shaking them up severely.

Both Burns and the automobilist were proceeding toward Laguna. The man in the auto refused to give his name. The number on his car was 146,023. The accident occurred at about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

63 MILITIAMEN, WITH MUNITIONS SUPPLY, AWAIT NEW ORDERS

Capt. McBride Wires Adjutant General Asking Quick Action on Lieutenants

Co. L is under arms. The men are under pay. There are sixty-three members, officers, privates and cooks. The company has 6000 rounds of ammunition for rifles and 2000 rounds for pistols.

Capt. McBride expects to be able to recruit the company to 125 or 140 men within a week's time, if the company remains here that long.

Equipment is on hand for seventy men. If the company is recruited to its full strength of 144 men and three officers, the extra number will be equipped at the point of mobilization.

Captain John L. McBride, of Company L, received instructions at 8 o'clock this morning to order his men under arms. The order came from C. W. Thomas, Jr., adjutant general, at Sacramento. Many of the members, having heard of the action of the president yesterday, were at the armory this morning, in anticipation of instructions from Sacramento. There was an air of seriousness among the men at the headquarters of the company, and there was general activity along the lines of cleaning guns, uniforms, etc. With the possible exception of two men, it is expected that every member of the company will report at the armory by tonight. Hugh Veale is at Seelye, Imperial Valley, and cannot get here by tonight. John Terrooren, a cook, is believed to be at Elsinore, and if he is located, he should be here tonight. He was at Elsinore when Capt. McBride last heard from him, about two months ago. He may have moved to some other place by this time.

Efficiency
The company has been kept well in hand by officers and "non-coms" for some time in preparation for just such action as has been taken. Each corporal has the name, residence address and phone number of each member of his squad, and each got busy at once summoning his squad to the armory, with the result that most of the men had reported by noon.

Capt. McBride, of course, has no idea how soon he will be called to action. He might hold his company here for a month, and again he might be ordered to a mobilization camp or into Mexico within the week. If the company should go into a mobilization camp it will go to the camp at Sacramento.

While under arms none except commissioned officers will be permitted to take their meals at home. Capt. McBride has made arrangements with a local restaurant for providing his men with meals.

To Remain At Armory

After tonight the men will have to remain at the armory and must not leave without permission of the officers. The company will be drilled regularly and put in shape for the best possible service in the field, should it be called into active war. No attempt will be made to hold members whose enlistments have expired. Second Lieutenant Ford has been appointed recruiting officer, and it is the belief of Capt. McBride that many former members of the company will present themselves for enlistment. He believes he can bring his company up to 125 men by the end of this week, if he is not ordered out of town.

Drawing Pay

This will make the third time the local company has been called to service, the first being for the Spanish-American war, when it went as far as San Francisco, and the second being for service at San Francisco at the time of the earthquake and fire.

The members of the company commenced drawing pay with the receipt of the order this morning. The rate of pay, by the month, is as follows: Captain, $200; First Lieutenant, $166.67; Second Lieutenant, $141.67; First Sergeant, $45; Quartermaster Sergeant, $30; Sergeants, $30; Corporals, $21; Cooks, $20; Musicians, $15; Privates, $15. The salaries include board, except as to commissioned officers.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon thirty-nine men were in uniform at the armory. Within two hours after Capt. McBride got his order to go under arms, he had fifty per cent of his company assembled.

HERE IS TELEGRAM ORDERING COMPANY L TO BE PREPARED

Sacramento, June 19, 1916. Commanding Officer, Co. L, Seventh Regiment, N. G. C., Santa Ana, Cal. General Order No. 18: Order your company under arms, service United States, Maximum strength, 144 men, three officers. (Signed) C. W. THOMAS, Jr., Adj. Gen.

SHERIFF HAS NO FEAR MEXICANS IN COUNTY WILL STIR TROUBLE

Sheriff Jackson stated this morning that he has no expectation of trouble being stirred up among Mexicans in this county.

"Most of the Mexicans here came here to get out of trouble," said the sheriff, "and they are not looking for more trouble. All they want is to be let alone. Instead of starting something, they are afraid that something will be started with them. I have talked to many of the Mexicans, and I do not find any desire to mix in the Mexican situation at all."

"I am starting out to make a round of the Mexican settlements in the county, to tell the Mexicans that they will be protected so long as they obey the law, that they have nothing to fear and that all they have to do is to go right along and attend strictly to business. I shall probably post notices to that effect."

"I do not believe there will be any kind of an outbreak. We have heard frequent rumors of Mexicans arming and Mexicans meeting, and all that sort of thing, and we have investigated these rumors and found them to be groundless. I have been keeping in close touch with the Mexican situation, and I am satisfied that the Mexicans in this county have no desire to mix in the matter in any way at all."

YALE LATIN PRIZE IS WON BY TAFT'S SON

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 19.—Charles Phelps Taft, second son of former President Taft, is announced one of the winners of the Lucius F. Robinson Latin prizes awarded annually to Yale sophomores for proficiency in Latin.

Young Taft was one of the leaders of his class in scholarship, aside from having captained the basketball team and played on the baseball, football and track teams.

Names and Occupations of Company L Members

John L. McBride, Captain of the company, has been a member of Company L for eleven years. He has never seen active service, but was with the company at San Francisco, where it did patrol duty at the time of the fire.

First Lieutenant Holderman has never been under arms before. He has been with the company for about fifteen years, and was principal musician of the Seventh Regiment when S. H. Finley of this city was Colonel.

Second Lieutenant Ford has never seen active duty, this being the first time he was ever under arms. He served four years with troop A, First Cavalry, at Milwaukee, Wis.; was battalion sergeant major of the Second Infantry, of Washington, being attached to headquarters at Spokane. He enlisted with Company L shortly after taking up his residence here.

Following are the names and occupations of the officers and men. Except where otherwise stated, their residences are in Santa Ana.

Captain: J. L. McBride, Orange County Surveyor, member Santa Ana Board of Education.

First Lieut.: Nelson M. Holderman, rancher, Tustin.

Second Lieut.: A. K. Ford, Asst. Secretary Orange County Auto Club.

First Sergeant: W. J. Pease, baker, Quarter-Master Sergeant: E. D. Christensen, Western Union operator, Los Angeles.

SERIOUS AIR AT LOCAL ARMORY AS SOLDIERS GET READY GUNS, UNIFORMS

Every effort is to be made to get Company L's lieutenants-elect full-fledged commissions as quickly as possible.

Recently First Lieutenant Roy Knight resigned and his resignation has been accepted, he now being out of the service. Second Lieutenant N. M. Holderman was elected first lieutenant to take Knight's place, and A. K. Ford, first duty sergeant, was elected second lieutenant to succeed Lieutenant Holderman. Holderman still holds his commission as second lieutenant. Captain McBride telephoned this morning requesting the issuance of the commissions at once, on Major L. L. Vestal's statement that Holderman and Ford passed most flattering examinations.

These events were of such recent occurrence that the time necessary for the ordinary procedure for examinations and the issuance of commissions has not elapsed.

Adjutant General Thomas has endeavored to hasten the proceeding as much as possible. Instead of naming a board of three examiners to give examinations to the applicant for a commission, in Lieutenant Holderman's case, the adjutant general appointed Major L. L. Vestal, retired, of Santa Ana, to conduct the tests. The examinations were given by Major Vestal yesterday. The test was a three-hour written examination, in which Holderman answered 180 questions sent to Major Vestal by the adjutant general. Vestal has already forwarded the papers to Sacramento, but they will not reach the adjutant general's office before tomorrow morning. It is hoped that all possible haste will be used in passing upon the papers, but it is feared that the rush of work at the adjutant general's office may cause some delays.

Unofficially, Ford took the same examination that was given Holderman. It is possible that the adjutant general will allow Ford's answers to be filed as his official examination, in which case the time of getting a commission would be hastened. It is also possible that a commission will be issued without delay upon the recommendation of the captain and regimental officers.

Whether or not the commissions for the two lieutenants arrive before the company moves, Holderman and Ford will leave with the company attending each to his duties as lieutenant. When the California guardsmen went to San Francisco in '98 several of the companies had officers who had not received their commissions from the state.

Consul Gavira sent his family away, but insisted that he would not close the consulate here.

FUNSTON CHECKS CRITICISM OF PARKER MOVE

SAN ANTONIO, June 19.—A disposition to criticize General Parker, commanding at Brownsville, for withdrawing the column sent into Mexico Saturday, today was checked by General Funston. The latter stated that General Parker had been instructed to withdraw when he had accomplished his purpose to disperse or capture the bandits, or when he found its accomplishment impossible.

General Funston said that General Parker had accomplished his object. General Parker withdrew after exchanging notes with General Ricault at Matamoros.

General Ricault informed General Parker that unless the expedition, which he regarded as an "invading force," withdrew, it would be attacked.

The National Guard will be mobilized in their respective states and will be sent to the border only on General Funston's call. General Funston added that it may be some time before the troops reach the border.

WILSON HAS RIGHT TO SEND MILITIA INTO MEXICO, SAYS SOLON

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The National Guardsmen may be sent to the border without further congressional action, in the opinion of Senator Chamberlain, chairman of the Senate Military Committee, today. So confident is he, he said, that this would be the case, that he does not intend to ask Congress to take such a step.

Chamberlain expressed his belief on the ground that in case the invasion of the United States is threatened, very broad powers are allowed the President to meet the emergency.

He said he did not doubt that the President's right to order the state troops into Mexican territory as a strategic move to prevent invasion. How far the President may proceed with such a move is a puzzle to Chamberlain as well as to army officers.

The weight of opinion is that the state troops may not be used in a campaign in Mexico before July 1, when the new army law goes into effect. Before that time the militiamen must take the double oath of allegiance, viz.,

BOUNDARY LINE SCENTS WAR AS TRUCKS SPEED AMMUNITION

CARRANZA STAND ON WITHDRAWAL RESULTS IN PATRIOTISM SWEEPING MEXICO

LAREDO, Tex., June 19.—Manuel Vigil today arrived at Nuevo Laredo, opposite here, with sixteen 3-inch field pieces and 200 artillerymen to reinforce the Carranzistas.

EL PASO, June 19.—What with the militia in all states having been called out and what with rumors, among others, of four Mexican soldiers and two citizens having been killed at Mazatlán, Sinaloa, yesterday by United States marines, a number of whom are said to have been killed and wounded, the border today scented war.

Precautions are being made to repel any attacks in the event that war is declared between the United States and Mexico.

There are unconfirmed rumors that Carranza has sent a messenger to Washington to notify President Wilson that war will be declared unless the troops are withdrawn within a week.

RUSH MUNITIONS
Every available truck on the border is rushing supplies and munitions over the lines of communication to General Pershing's 15,000 seasoned troops.

American arrivals state that there is a famine throughout Mexico and that the de facto have not sufficient food to last for thirty days.

General Pershing is strategically entrenched and no frontal attacks are expected.

Mexico Seething
Carranza's stand against the continued presence of American troops in Mexico is reported to have resulted in a wave of patriotism sweeping Mexico.

The de facto armies are being recruited to their maximum strength.

General Trevino is reported to have met President Wilson's militia call with a call for Mexican volunteers.

A large number of El Paso Mexicans today went to Juarez and enlisted.

Silliman Quits Mexico

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Consul Silliman, Saltillo, is today en route to the border under orders from the state department. There are now no consuls in the interior of Mexico.

Major L. L. Vestal Wires Gen. Thomas Enlistment Offer

Maj. L. L. Vestal of Santa Ana, retired battalion officer of the National Guard of California, today wired Adj. Gen. Thomas at Sacramento, offering his services to the state.

"While I am entitled to the rank that I had when I retired from the service," said Maj. Vestal today, "I have offered to enlist for any commissioned position, and I am ready to go to the front at once."

Major Vestal has had a wide experience as a guardsman. He was second lieutenant of Company L that went to San Francisco in '98. After the Spanish-American war he was captain of the company, and later was elected major, which position he held when he retired.

The full strength of the National Guard is 125,652, according to the War Department, and Secretary Baker estimates that the call will bring out two-thirds. With the 50,000 already on the border or in Mexico this will give Funston a force of 132,000.

CARRANZA BLUFF CALLED AS U. S. MOBILIZES ALL MILITIAMEN FOR SERVICE

Situation Critical, Interpretation of Statement By Lansing

WASHINGTON MAY SEND REPLY NOTE TONIGHT

State Secretary Grants Arredondo Formal Interview Tomorrow

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Secretary of State Lansing today granted a request by Eliseo Arredondo for a formal conference tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, June 19.

Following hard on the heels of President Wilson's action, yesterday, in issuing a call to National Guard organizations in every state in the Union for service on the Mexican border, making available about 82,000 men to add to General Funston's army, Secretary of War Baker today sent to the Military Committee of Congress a resolution authorizing the use of the militia for service in foreign territory.

Admitting the gravity of the situation Secretary Lansing said:

"There is more excitement and irritation in Mexico than heretofore."

The statement is most significant in view of Secretary Lansing's persistent refusal for weeks past to make any comment except to mention "co-operation" with the de facto government.

Chairman Hay of the house Military Committee today announced that the committee would with unanimous consent this afternoon pass the War Department's resolution advancing legislation permitting the use of militia on foreign soil.

FIRST EVENT OF SENIOR WEEK. SERMON TO GRADUATES

"Faith, Hope, Love" Are Dealt With In Baccalaureate By Rev. Wright

In the course of preaching the baccalaureate sermon last night, in a passionate outburst brought about by the news that the militia of all the states had been called out, Rev. Paul E. Wright named the move by the ugly term of "criminal aggression" and not patriotism nor preparedness, of which so much is being heard just now.

He classed the invasion of Mexico by the United States as merely a step to fight a country already stricken, in order to grab the few concessions which may be left and to gain a few votes for one or the other of the presidential candidates, both of whom, he said, stand on the same platform.

"I would shed every drop of my blood for the rights of my country," said the speaker in thundering tones, "but not one drop have I to shed to gain property."

"Why don't you clap?" shouted the impassioned speaker.

The news that the militia had been called out, came like a bolt out of a clear sky to the great majority of the people present, and instead of applauding, the huge audience sat so still that a pin could have been heard to drop and a wave of deep feeling seemed to spread over the people.

The baccalaureate services of the class of '16 B of the Polytechnic high school, held last night in the First Methodist church, will mark an epoch in the lives of these young people, 12, in number. They heard a sermon, powerful and beautiful and eloquent in its simplicity and sweetness, yet bringing out a passionate outburst from the speaker when he felt called upon to rebuke the call of arms to send the soldiers of the militia of the United States into Mexico.

Church Crowded

It is estimated that fully 1500 people jammed the Methodist church, the people not being able to gain admittance going to the United Presbyterian church for an overflow meeting, addressed by Rev. A. T. O'Rear of the Spurgeon Memorial church, on "The Sun that Crucified Christ." This church was also crowded.

Rev. J. G. Kennedy, president of the Ministerial Union, presided at the First Methodist church. Promptly at 8 o'clock Miss Blanche Hill at the piano struck the opening bars of the march and the long line of graduates filed in two by two, taking seats in the central division of the church, while the board of education and faculty occupied pews at the right side.

The church was beautifully and artistically decorated for the occasion, a profusion of greenery, potted plants and white carnations, the class flower, entering into the arrangement.

The evening's services opened with the singing of "Holy, Holy, Holy," by the large choir, under the direction of Prof. F. P. Haynes, and the congregational singing of "The Faith of Our Fathers."

The Invocation

Dr. Kennedy gave the eloquent invocation, giving thanks for the splendid opportunities now before the young people of this great country and thanking God for the men and women who have gone before and who made these things possible and for the teachers of the present day who give years of work to bring these young people's education to a successful close.

The choir rendered a beautiful anthem, "Whoso Dwelleth Under the Defense of the Most High" (Martin), in which Mrs. White took the solo part.

Prof. E. H. McMath made the announcement of the remainder of the commencement exercises, the class play, "Green Stockings," Monday, and Tuesday evenings at Temple Theater at 8 p. m., and the commencement program Wednesday evening at the same hour at the First Methodist church. The main part of the auditorium will be reserved for parents and friends of the graduates, admission by ticket, the Sunday School room and balcony to be open to the general public.

Rev. Otto S. Russell of the First Baptist church read the thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians, which teaches the beautiful lesson of faith, hope and charity, this being followed by a beautiful solo by Prof. Haynes, "Christ at the Door," by Evans.

"The Greatest Loss"

Rev. Paul E. Wright of the First Christian church was the choice of the seniors to preach the sermon to them and he chose for his topic "The Greatest Loss," weaving his thoughts about the great topics read in the scripture lesson, faith, hope and charity.

Rev. Wright in his sermon said:

Principle of Faith

It may seem that the subject I have chosen is not pertinent for the occasion, yet I feel that there is always room for a frank talk between friends. It is as a friend, therefore, that I wish to be remembered by this class and to speak this evening.

I would rather be on your lists than any other I know of. There are many, very many, who would surrender not a few things, counted valuable, to be where you are tonight, to have your time and the enthusiasm of your young lives. If I could have you for my friends, the next ten years would mean more than any other ten years of life. You are the people who are to settle some of the greatest questions the world has ever been called upon to settle.

Your friends have a right to expect something extraordinary of you. Your advantages have been extraordinary. To whom much is given much is required.

We look earnestly to your lives as the expression of what you have obtained in the past years. You must incarnate your fine idealism into your lives. If you have things that will not work into a grand plan you must forget them very soon. Decide at once on the values and set it adrift. Let your power to forget be as good as your memory.

Again, we expect you to be a break-water against those persons and doctrines that would disturb the peace and harmony of the harbor within. It is naturally and rightly supposed that those who are educated are to help form public opinion and give it its proper drift.

You are expected to discriminate between the true and the false, between the genuine and the tawdry. You are not to be stampeded by anything not worth while. Your serenity and poise must be respected.

Underlying Principle

It is my purpose to speak to you upon the principles that underlie effort, sustained effort, gracious and devoted effort. It passes without contradiction that life is the sublime miracle and mystery of the universe. Human life is the miracle of miracles, and the expression of the highest and best thought and work, the supreme privilege of everyone.

The principle that underlies all well directed effort is faith. Now this is a peculiar term. It belongs to religion. But does it not belong to all life and living?

The fact of the matter is we make a distinction between sacred and secular things when the distinction does not really exist. Everything we do is a sacred thing. There is no such thing as a secular profession or a secular day or duty. All things in the sight of Almighty God are sacred things.

These terms are universal and not peculiar to one kind of thought. Faith is the mainspring to all action. The heroes of the world are heroes of faith. They are men and women who have believed something and believed it tremendously. Not always have they obtained their end but where they failed their heroism is only the brighter. Many have died in the faith never having obtained the promises. The man who is a man of large faith has the first prime requisite for a large success. But what about its loss? The one who has lost his faith is a skeptic. Now skepticism as a principle never did anything. It never pioneers a new country, builds a railroad, makes a home, or country. But it will destroy all of these. Verily "he that believeth not shall be damned."

Doing Nothing an Evil

The man who does not believe does not do anything, consequently he has no future in this world or the next. What must I do to be lost? Do nothing, simply nothing. Let faith be wanting and your end is near. In this matter you cannot rely on the faith of others. The faith of your father was good for him but it is not worth anything to you until it becomes your own. It must pass from sentiment into principle. His faith can no more save you than his reputation can.

The principle that underlies sustained effort is hope. Life is somewhat of an illusion. Things are not what they seem. And it is well enough that they are not. When God wanted to develop a people that should bless all the centuries to follow he called Abraham to the country that he should give him. Before this grand old man of faith and all his descendants he hung the picture of the promised land. The land flowing with milk and honey.

That promise never was fulfilled in its real estate. It was an illusion that led them on and on until they came to "look for a city that hath foundations whose builder and maker is God."

Life is just that way. It always looks better just ahead, and it is. Around the hope of life clusters its joys. You can remember distinctly the joys of childhood. When the ball or the marble rolled out of sight the whole world was in darkness. As the years bring you maturity these things assume their proper place. They were things of childhood, but when we become men we put away childish things. May I say then that a man's maturity is evidenced by his joys of life?

The Pessimist

When is a man? And our answer is when he has put away childish things. Now if you should lose hope because things are not as you would have them, you become a pessimist. A pessimist is one who is disappointed, disgruntled, disgusted and despairing.

ing, the most unsocial creature in all the world, unloving and unlovable.

Select the joys that are pure and good and let that be the program of your hope. I have lived long enough to observe two classes as they have worked out their hopes and aims.

Among the first, I have known some wretchedly poor boys and girls, some terribly handicapped in every way, and some crippled, but I have not found among those of high aims and splendid hopes a single failure.

On the other hand, I call the roll of those who have chased joys of a different sort and I call the roll of the great register of the dead. Hope, a lively hope, sustains all worthy effort. Only the sustained effort gets to the goal.

Power of Love

My last point is, that no service is worth anything whose ingredient is any other than love. Paul says it is the greatest thing in the world. It makes the home, it makes the country, it builds the college, it protects and cultures the coming generations, it brought Jesus from the skies to redeem the world. It is really the greatest thing in the world.

To lose it, is the greatest loss.

I am now pleading for something more than words. I am asking for that deep and splendid thing we call compassion for all men. We are not satisfied with patriotism as splendid a thing as that is; nor with philanthropy that sees man in a mass and does out a contemptible pittance per week for the helpless, nor even of domestic felicity and devotion, but we shall be satisfied when we see that every man has an outlook, a horizon, a hope commensurate with his powers to appreciate, to have and to enjoy.

One who loses his love for the fine things of life becomes a cynic, a miserable misanthrope. This disposition is born of sublimated selfishness. It is utterly destructive of every tender and noble emotion of the soul.

Let not your life be misdirected. Let these three things that are to abide be the constituents of your characters.

With the singing of the thrilling hymn, "God be With You Till We Meet Again," and the benediction given by Rev. E. J. Inwood of the First Methodist church, the great audience filed out, following the graduates.

SPERRY FLOUR

Its uniform high quality has made it the flour standard of the West. If you want to make good bread

Try This Sperry Bread Recipe

3 1/2 lbs. (3 1/2 quarts) Sperry Flour
6 level tablespoons sugar 2 cakes compressed yeast
2 level tablespoons salt
Dissolve yeast, sugar and salt in water at 80° F. Sift flour three times and warm slightly; make well in center of flour, add liquid; mix gradually, adding shortening.
Knead thoroughly to soft elastic dough; keep in warm place, and allow to rise 2 1/2 times its volume; push down; allow to rise again in mold into loaves; when double in size, bake in pre-arranged oven 40 to 50 min. For five-hour bread the temperature of the dough should be maintained at 80° F. For overnight bread see dough at 50° F., and use only one cake of compressed yeast.

This will make four loaves weighing about 1 lb., 4 oz. each, and there are 55 of these loaves in a sack of Sperry Flour—the flour that enables the beginner, as well as the experienced housewife to produce good things to eat because it is the one flour that never varies, each sack is like every othersack.

WOMEN THREATEN TO HURL SUFFRAGE STATE VOTE AGAINST WILSON

ST. LOUIS, June 19.—Representatives of the National Woman's Party, at a banquet held here in honor of the late Susan B. Anthony, expressed keen disappointment over the working of the Democratic suffrage plank and threatened to turn the four million women voters in twelve suffrage states against the Democratic ticket if Congress refuses to pass a suffrage amendment before election day.

Among the speakers were Rheta Childs Dorff of New York, Ann Martin of Nevada, national chairman of the woman's party; Sara Bard Field of Oregon and Maude Younger of California; Alice Paul of New Jersey, and Ida Finney MacKrell of California.

POMONA BOOTLEG RING THOUGHT BROKEN UP

POMONA, June 19.—A baggageman's sense of smell may have broken up what appears to have been an attempt to ship liquor into dry territory by consigning it from inland cities instead of from Los Angeles. It is believed that a gang of bootleggers in the foothill district have been doing a large business by shipping wet goods into Arizona since the state went dry.

A drayman hauled four heavy trunks to the baggage room of the Southern Pacific station and announced that a young woman would call and check them out.

The trunk finally was hauled back to the station.

The drayman says that when he unloaded the trunk the second time it was so soggy that he could see into it and read the labels of the trunks. He dropped the trunk a little harder than necessary, intentionally. At any rate, when the baggageman went to reweigh it he thought he smelled whisky. He took a few good sniffs and then refused the whole bunch of trunks.

Thereupon the girl was much flustered. She had another talk with her male companions and then she ordered another drayman to haul the trunks away. The police had a line on the proceedings by that time and were keeping tab on the trunks.

RIVER DISTRICT BONDS BEATEN SEVEN VOTES

Now Proposed to Put Project Through By Levying a Special Tax

The proposed special bond issue of $55,000 by which it was proposed to provide a new outlet for the Santa Ana river, presented on Saturday by the voters of the Newbert Protection District, was defeated by a scant seven votes, 67 for to 74 against. A majority vote was needed.

The lower district was decidedly in favor of the project but the upper district went strongly against it, believing it would not proportionately benefit thereby.

Although beaten in the preliminary skirmish for the control of the Santa Ana river, directors of the district will not lay down their arms for they believe that they have the majority of the people in the district behind them. Four out of the five directorate are said to be committed to the proposition and will proceed at once to take up the work under a special tax.

The vote by precincts was: No. 1: For, 2; against, 33. No. 2 (Newhope): For, 6; against, 13. No. 3 (Old Newport): For, 10; against, 26. No. 4 (Talbert): For, 30; against, 2. No. 5: For, 20; against, 0. Total: For, 67; against, 74.

The directors are meeting this afternoon to canvass the returns. There is some talk of calling for another election. The special tax proposal will be discussed today.

The district comprises about 18,000 acres and even under the special tax plan the burden will not be appreciably felt by the property holders.

The project includes the construction of a new channel for the Santa Ana river across the sandspit near the Pacific Gun Club, following the direct lines of the old river channel as dyked by the district. A right of way has been secured from the Pacific Electric Railway to cross under the tracks.

A suitable bridge and two small jetties will be built about 500 feet long and about 300 feet apart, extending out to a point four feet below low tide level. These jetties will be made of round wood and sheet pilings and an extra row of pilings placed on the westerly side to provide for a 20 foot conduit for a drainage canal. Flood gates sixty feet in width will be constructed, which will open automatically when the water on the outside is higher than the water in the river and close when the water in the river is higher than outside.

A weir 200 feet in width will be made at the entrance to the Newport tide channel on the height of the average flood stream, to provide for the excess of water when the flood waters meet the high tide. By the construction of this weir all silt and mud deposits will be withheld from entering Newport Bay which will react to the immeasurable benefit of the harbor.

The engineering features of the project have been gone over by Engineer H. Clay Kellogg of Santa Ana, who has the matter in charge. Mr. Kellogg states that the sandstone formation of the ocean bottom at the mouth of the jetties will assure the permanence of the outlet of the new channel while the topography of the surrounding country marks the project as feasible from every angle.

DELEGATES TO THE CONFERENCE TO BE ELECTED SATURDAY

San Diego and Riverside Have Already Named Their Representatives

Next Saturday, Republicans of Orange County will hold informal primaries for the purpose of selecting delegates to the congressional conference to be held at San Diego on July 1.

Nominations for the first supervisory district were made at a meeting of Santa Ana Republicans last Friday night. Nominations have been made in most of the supervisory districts.

In the second district the nominees for delegates are J. C. Mitchell, Garden Grove; R. D. Richards, Seal Beach; L. W. Blodgett and Ed Manning, Huntington Beach; H. E. Larter, Wintersburg.

In the third district the nominees include J. W. Duckworth, P. C. Krause, J. S. Howard, Anaheim; Gustav Stern, R. T. Davies, George Ruddock, Fullerton; Harry Ray, Brea; G. W. Bird, Olinde; J. G. Launer, La Habra; T. L. McFadden, Placentia; D. W. Hasson, Buena Park.

In the fifth district nominees include C. B. Brown, G. B. Prather, Tustin; R. B. Cook, San Juan Capistrano; H. L. Wakeham, Old Newport.

UNITED PARTY HAS SPLENDID MEETING IN RIVERSIDE COUNTY

RIVERSIDE, June 19.—The unanimous endorsement of Charles E. Hughes for president and of Charles Warren Fairbanks for vice president of the United States, was incorporated in the resolutions adopted by the committee on Resolutions at the Republican county convention assembled here.

The convention elected forty delegates to attend the Eleventh Congress District convention to be held at San Diego on July 1.

Francis Cottle was made chairman of a committee of ten, with power to appoint the other nine, to arrange for a rousing ratification of the nominees as soon as possible after their acceptance.

ances of the nominations have been announced.

C. L. McFarland called the meeting to order, and District Attorney Lyman Evans was elected permanent chairman. Maurice Griffin was chosen permanent secretary and T. C. Jamison of Corona and John C. Campbell of Elsinore assistant secretaries.

Protectionist Wanted
The sense of the convention was voiced by Chairman Evans, when he said:

"For four years I have felt the humiliation of being represented in Congress by a man who stood with a party to take the tariff off our oranges and our lemons. The time has come for the return by an overwhelming majority of a congressman from this district who is a strong protectionist. Our duty here today is to select forty men who will go to San Diego and select a strong man, a statesman, a man of national character, who will represent not a city or a county, but the entire district."

"And I rejoice to think that we can sail to success under the name of the Republican party, united, strong, invincible."

Endorse National Platform
By adopting the report of the committee on Resolutions, the convention eliminated all possibility of the consideration of State Assembly and Senatorial nominations.

IN AN ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING SAN DIEGO SELECTS DELEGATES

SAN DIEGO, June 19.—A united Republican party in San Diego county and the nation was the keynote of the Republican county conference held Saturday, as expressed by Dr. D. G. Gochenauer in his address. More than 500 staunch Republicans of the county met in the convention, which was the first big gathering of the party in the county since 1912.

Many who have been following the Progressive party since that time, headed by Attorney C. A. A. McGee, a former Progressive leader, returned to the old party when the conference was held to elect ninety-five delegates to meet in the district convention to be held July 1 in this city by the Republicans of the Eleventh district to endorse a congressional candidate.

L. A. Wright, C. A. A. McGee, E. L. Davis and many others gave rousing speeches. A spirited fight was held as to the manner of electing the delegates.

The committees appointed, headed by M. L. Ward, recommended that the ninety-five delegates be nominated from the floor. This was opposed by a motion made by Eugene Perry Smith that the delegates be elected from each supervisory district in the same ratio as the county central committee, counting four to each committeeman and to elect the remaining eleven at large. Smith's motion, which carried, insured the representation of the entire county.

SAN BERNARDINO WILL NAME DELEGATES SOON

SAN BERNARDINO, June 19.—A county-wide caucus or primary will be held this week to select delegates to the Republican convention in San Bernardino on June 27. Every precinct in the county has been notified to select representatives on Saturday to attend the convention.

Republicans and Progressives will be named and they will be given an equal representation at the Republican congressional district convention at San Diego on July 1 when a candidate for Congress will be endorsed. R. C. Harbison of this city has already announced his candidacy.

SEEK PROTECTION FOR STOREKEEPERS

SEAL BEACH, June 19.—As this young municipality has no ordinance regulating the operation of transient street merchants, Seal Beach has become infested with peddlers of all kinds of merchandise that at times makes the principal thoroughfares look like the well-known streets of Cairo during fair time.

Because of this wholesale invasion of wagon stores, the legitimate established business men and women of the city are up in arms and storm the council at each meeting with an appeal for relief in the form of an ordinance that will protect them from the fly-by-night peddlers.

Following a petition signed by all the merchants of Seal Beach that do not have their stores on four wheels, City Attorney Burke has been instructed to prepare an ordinance legislating the invaders out of the city with the alternative of paying a high license that would probably be prohibitive.

THE OTHER SIDE

The P. E. argument in favor of the North Main street franchise may be summed up as follows:

First—Its passenger business has been ruined by "jitney" competition, and in order to continue to operate the road it must develop a freight business.

Second—In order to get freight business in Orange County the P. E. must have a freight connection between its Orange line and the S. P.—the Orange line ultimately to be extended north through Anaheim and Fullerton, to a connection with the La Habra-Brea line, and that line to be extended to a connection with the San Bernardino-Riverside line, at Corona.

Third—If the necessary connection cannot be had by means of the proposed North Main street curve, the P. E. will be forced to build a "cut-off" line from Garden Grove to Orange, "which would naturally be its main line, thus leaving Santa Ana on a branch line." The prevention of this commercial disaster, it is argued, is where Santa Ana's benefit would be derived from the granting of the North Main street franchise.

Fourth—The granting of the proposed North Main street franchise, the railroad argument contends, would not result in the establishment of a freight yard in the Main-Bush-Santa Clara section, and would not convert any portion of the Main street line into a "freight line."

Summary—In other words, and in a nutshell, the North Main street franchise is an economic necessity to the P. E., would not be a detriment to adjacent property or city, and would be a benefit to the city in obviating the necessity on the part of the P. E. for the building of the Garden Grove "cut-off," which would of necessity become the main line.

Assuming, FOR THE SAKE OF ARGUMENT ONLY, that this statement of the P. E. position is correct, sincere and logical, we still oppose the granting of the franchise. LET THE FRANCHISE BE NOW DENIED, and submit the case to the Railroad Commission. If the Railroad Commission should advise the granting of the franchise, reconsideration might then be in order. If the P. E. is right in its contention that no harm would be done to adjacent property or to the city by the granting of the franchise, it cannot object to a conditional revocable franchise. And such a franchise, backed by the Railroad Commission, the citizens might be willing to grant.

THE GARDENING HABIT

It is always with rejoicing that one sees his neighbor laying out a fine garden. In that way one gets a feast of lovely color without backache or expense. Fortunately, it is not the custom in America, as it is in foreign countries, to surround home places with high and forbidding walls. Americans prefer light and low fences, or more commonly none at all. Private lawns become, as far as looking goes, a public park.

A pretty garden goes far to make an otherwise unattractive place seem beautiful. Many of the old fashioned homes we used to see in our childhood were of themselves bare and ugly. But they were redeemed by their lovely flowers. The beloved varieties there cultivated were never more popular than today. The man who wants his place to acquire distinction and character should raise a flower garden. It will pay double its cost in enhanced value of the homestead, in case he wishes to sell.

The wealthy family that employs hired gardeners does not get the wholesome exercise, nor the satisfaction of creating beauty with his own hands, which is the finest reward of it all. But flowers pay their way, no matter who tends them.

The elaborate and costly garden rejoices both the owner and the poor man who passes by. The latter feels no sentiment of jealousy at this kind of display. He recognizes it as a contribution made to town beauty, a kind of thank offering for the blessings of prosperity.

The most luxuriant gardens are often found around humble cottages, planted by people who seem least able to do the work. But they lead simple lives, have no exhausting social duties nor elaborate housekeeping, and they rise early in the morning. It is to them that the golf links is to the man of wealth, and is likewise a generous contribution to community betterment.

Manager's Announcement About "The Melting Pot"

I desire to make announcement of the producing rights of the great American drama, "The Melting Pot," for Chautauqua audiences this season.

No play ever presented for the Chautauqua has had such a strong cast of players. The parts in this play require the services of the most accomplished and experienced actors. Nearly all of the players engaged for this tour have played the same parts during the long run of this play in the larger cities. There are ten players in the cast.

"The Melting Pot" is a great drama with an interesting story, but it is vastly more than an entertaining production. Mr. Zangwill symbolizes our land as the melting pot of the world. Into this crucible, beneath which burn the fires of our political and social philosophy, refugees from all parts of the earth, men and women oppressed by the arbitrary dictum of crime and religion, are poured, to be fused and amalgamated into the sterling gold of a broader, nobler humanity and a self-governed nation. It is a sound philosophy and appeals to every patriotic American citizen.

"The Melting Pot" has proven to be more than the favorite play of the time it had its great run in the cities; it is being called "The Great American Play," and it will live.

I want to urge this whole community to see it.

CHARLES F. HORNER.
Santa Ana Chautauqua begins July 15th.

LOVE AND MONEY

I never would marry for money.
I think such conduct is base.
If my freedom I sold for the jingle of gold

To a woman I thought either ugly or old.

Or even if wanting in grace,
I should blush to myself, as I ought.
At the thought

I never would marry for money.
I'll marry for nothing but love.

If of love I'm possessed I am bound to be blessed.

But some money's not bad, and it must be confessed

It's something I am not above.
It is little I'm able to show
The dough;

That I know.

I never would marry for money,
But still if you give me a chance

I should not let a pile stand a very great while

In my way if a maiden with money should smile.

I should not stick too much for romance.

People never are ugly or old
If they've gold.

So I'm told.

What's Worth Dying For?

San Francisco Bulletin

Even now the pace-setting minds in the preparedness campaign do not seem to understand that dislike of their own noisy intolerance may be a better explanation than personal cowardice for the apathy with which their message has been received; or that it is not the sordidness of the public, but the sordidness of some of their own backers that has done most to hurt their cause. Pacifism is in part just pacifism; a teaching which is noble enough, but which has not penetrated the hearts of majorities. But a great deal of that which is loosely called pacifism is an active democratic revolt against the arrogant meanness of much that goes out under the seal of preparedness. The clean-cut distinctions of this revolt are well drawn by a correspondent of the New Republic:

"I am willing to kill or be killed for the following: 1. Defense of my family or fellow-citizens against an invading army. 2. Defense of the freedom of conscience, the freedom of speech, or revolt against any form of unreasonable tyranny.

"I am not willing to kill or be killed for the following: 1. Defense of property interests in industrial disputes. 2. Defense of American government in the Philippines or any other subject possession. 3. Defense of American capital in China or other foreign countries."

A "pacifist" of this way of thinking will oppose compulsory service because it does not leave him liberty to choose between Group 1 and Group 2. The attempt to popularize militarism has been led by men who plainly think in terms of Group 2, but who speak in terms of Group 1. Thinking domination they preach defense.

There is an honorable, clear-eyed, clean-handed preparedness, which would begin with the child in the tenement, which would sacrifice no men or women or children to the Moloch of private greed, which would not give away the wealth of all the people (as a party in Congress at this very session has basely attempted to do), which would not tolerate the abatement "of natural rights," which would make the rearing of a virile race superior to all other public or private undertakings. It is this kind of preparedness, not the preparedness of ships and rifles, that cannot wait.

But this would require sacrifices on the part of the very interests which are hottest for big-gun preparedness; and they are plainly in a grasping, not a "sacrificing" mood. It would also require the stern application of radical measures of social reform, and here, again, they draw back. They are happy in the conviction that this is a period of reaction, not of radicalism.

If this Group 2 preparedness wins, under the attractive guise of Group 1, it will be a sorry sort of practical joke.

THE SWISS SYSTEM OF MILITARY TRAINING

By William G. Shepherd

NOTE:—This is the fourth of a series five articles by Shepherd dealing with the Swiss system of military training for citizens in its relation to the possibilities of a similar system in the United States.

BERNE—The average Swiss man is better physically and as a soldier than the average American male, thanks to the system of compulsory military training in Switzerland.

Gets under the hide, a statement like this, but it's true. Every male Swiss can shoot straighter, run longer, march farther and endure more than the average male American. You have only to know what the Swiss is taught to do and what the average American isn't taught to do to realize that this is true.

Every Swiss school boy MUST go to a gymnasium. Every Swiss school must HAVE a gymnasium. It doesn't matter whether it's a church school or a business college or a fancy, high-priced school for little Swiss Lord Fauntleroy; it MUST have a gymnasium.

In this gymnasium MUST be taught daily, certain exercises prescribed by the government. These are the highly scientific product of the deepest study in physical development.

The average American doesn't even know what these exercises are.

Now and then, it is true, after he's fattened up at thirty, the American answers an advertisement and purchases some alleged scientific physical culture book and follows the instructions therein.

Any Swiss school boy of ten could teach him a world of valuable things in this line.

By the time a Swiss school boy is twenty he has developed his physique to its high point.

He has made his body as fine and strong as his particular body can be made.

This has been done scientifically and meanwhile, the call of his splendid muscles has driven him to football and other sports.

That crowded polo grounds in New York makes you sick, when you look over these Swiss. You couldn't get 10,000 healthy Swiss to sit around of an afternoon watching OTHER men play a game. Each man wants to play himself. Hundreds of little sport-centers are always busy.

That cheering grandstand at the polo grounds, filled with men that couldn't run to first base without puffing, is a disgusting thought, here in the war country.

Anything in the world is better than that. Any pacifist must admit that even learning how to shoot, out in the country—learning how to shoot with the intention of killing an enemy some day if you have to—is better than the average American's silly MENTAL participation in baseball. Or, if you're too much of a baseball fan, make it kelly pool.

The average Swiss boy can outshoot the average American boy.

The Swiss boy belongs to a rifle club in his neighborhood.

The club is supported by the community. His shooting costs him nothing.

Let an American boy get the idea that he wants to be a sharp-shooter. Where can he learn?

Where, in most cases, will he find the money to buy his rifle and ammunition?

Rich American boys, true enough, have opportunity to learn the art of shooting. Good shooting is among the accomplishments of almost every rich American youth.

But the average American boy, no matter how deeply he may be stirred by his desire to learn how to defend himself and his country in war, is without a chance unless he later in life develops political or social ambition, and goes into the state militia.

In his shooting, as in his physical training, the Swiss youth finds a world of fun. There are shooting matches in various neighborhoods.

Finally the champions of a canton are weeded out. They shoot against each other in semi-finals and every year at Berne there is a great national shooting match that draws throngs of husky shooting men from every corner of the little country.

Warlike sports, says the pacifist.

Yes, but it's a sport that keeps Switzerland from war. And baseball and cricket never kept any country from war.

(Article No. 5 will deal with the democracy of the Swiss army.)

JOHN JACOB ASTOR TO MARRY LADY NAIRNE

LONDON, June 19.—Captain John Jacob Astor, younger son of William Waldorf Astor, now Lord Astor, is soon to wed Lady Mercer Nairne, it has been announced.

Young Astor, who is an officer in the First Life Guards, and champion racquet player of the British army, was appointed by the King as a lieutenant in the Life Guards in 1906. Early in the war he was wounded in a battle in France, but the nature of his wounds was never disclosed.

Lady Mercer Nairne is the widow of Lord Charles George Francis Mercer Nairne, who was killed in the fighting in France in October, 1914. He was a major in the First Dragoons. His widow, whom he married in 1909, was Lady Violet Mary Elliot, daughter of the fourth Earl of Minto, former viceroy of India.

S. AMERICA DISTRUSTS U. S. MILITARY MOVES, BUENOS AYRES REPORT

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
BUENOS AYRES, Argentine, June 19.—News of the mobilization of the American militia has stirred up intense interest and developed a wide difference of opinion in South America.

The great masses of the people in South America are bitterly hostile to the sudden military activity of the United States. They look upon the action of the President with distrust.

They believe that if the United States does not actually intend to extend its boundaries on the south, it certainly does propose to attempt a paternal protectorate over Latin America.

Such an attempt will be viewed by South America as merely a disguise for the first step toward aggression.

TRAIN LEAPS RAILS NEAR YUMA; 12 HURT

YUMA, Ariz., June 19.—Twelve persons were injured and 114 given a severe shaking up at 12:27 yesterday morning when the Southern Pacific's "California" No. 1, bound for Los Angeles and going forty-five miles an hour, thirty miles east of Yuma, sped into a broken rail which sent four Pullman cars and a diner hurtling from the track.

The injured are A. M. Campos, Los Angeles; G. W. May, Chicago; Mrs. Cliff Crooks, Los Angeles; Mrs. Frank Packard, Globe, Ariz.; Mrs. G. Hansen, Long Beach; J. Marbury, Los Angeles; J. M. Carson (colored), Los Angeles; Leroy Mack, Benjamin Mitchell, Oliver Hendricks and John Carson, all dining car employees from Chicago.

With the exception of May and Campos, all the injured, after receiving first aid treatment, continued their journey and reached Los Angeles yesterday afternoon at 3:45.

MRS. J. J. ASTOR WILL MARRY ON THURSDAY

BAR HARBOR, Me., June 19.—It was learned early this morning that Mrs. John Jacob Astor and William Karl Dick have decided to be married at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. It will be a church wedding. Mr. Dick consented to this plan over the telephone late last night.

The shift in plans came after Mrs. Astor and her fiancé had consulted legal advisers and decided there was no way of getting around the Maine marriage license laws, which prescribe a minimum time limit of five days for non-residents between filing and granting marriage license applications. There will be no music or flowers. There will be a police guard at the door.

The marriage license application, as filed in the office of the town clerk of Bar Harbor, is as follows:

"Groom—William Karl Dick; age, 28; occupation, broker and manufacturer; single; first marriage; father, Henry Dick; residence, No. 20 East Fifty-third street; mother's maiden name, Julia Mollenhauer; residence, New York.

Bride—Mrs. Madeline Talmage Astor; age, 24; residence, New York City; birthplace, Brooklyn; widow, second marriage; father's name, William H. Force; father's occupation, commission merchant; mother's maiden name, Katherine Talmage."

METHODIST PICNIC

Thirty Young Folks of Epworth League Enjoy Afternoon At Laguna

One of the most pleasant afternoons in the history of the Epworth League of the First Methodist church was enjoyed Saturday, when automobiles were filled with thirty-eight young people, who hied away to picturesque Laguna for an afternoon of sports.

A field meet was the first thing on the program after arrival, the sides representing Occidental and Pomona colleges, Occidental winning. There were various kinds of races and games.

A hike was then taken to Arch Beach, where pictures were taken, return being made to the marine laboratory, where at 6 o'clock a picnic dinner was enjoyed.

Indoor ball games and various other diversions passed the time until 8 o'clock, when a weiner bake was enjoyed, after which the return trip to the city was made.

Entertainment, Farewell Reception

On last Wednesday evening was held the meeting of the woman's auxiliary to the Christian Woman's Board of Missions in the Sabbath school rooms of the Christian Church. It was also a farewell reception for the retiring president, Mrs. Belle Brown, and family.

The eloquent speaker, Clark Marsh of Fullerton, held his audience spellbound, his subject being "The World's Need, Both in Home and Foreign Fields." He said the need of humanity is the call of God. He was a missionary to Japan, but on account of ill health of dear ones, was not privileged to remain in the field.

His view of the Aid societies in the churches is that it was to aid the pastor, not for the purpose of raising church indebtedness, as that was a work for the men.

The ladies' quartet, Mmes. O'Brien and Hayes and Misses Fipps and Knight, delighted the audience with their fine selections and Miss Larue Fipps rendered one of her sweet solo numbers.

Mrs. Gist and Mrs. Brisendine expressed the appreciation of the Woman's Sunday school class and the Auxiliary of Mrs. Brown's work in the past year.

There was a large audience and all thoroughly enjoyed the evening, at the close of which delicious refreshments were served.

The decorations were of boganvillea white daisies, ivy and papyrus, most artistically arranged, in charge of F. M. Seelye.

A short business session preceded the meeting and election of officers took place as follows: President, Mrs. James O'Brien; vice-president, Mrs. A. G. Lucas; secretary, Mrs. F. M. Seelye; treasurer, Mrs. W. B. Williams.

Attended Presbyterian Picnic
Rev. and Mrs. Paul Stevens and son, Brewster, Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Stevenson and Mrs. Margaret Caldwell Gehret were among Santa Anans at the Presbyterian picnic at Eagle Rock today, under the auspices of the Presbyterian Ministerial Association of Los Angeles.

Features of the day were the reports from the general assembly convention and a picnic dinner at noon.

Auxiliary Meeting
The First Methodist Woman's Foreign Missionary Auxiliary will meet in the church parlors Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. An excellent program has been arranged and visitors will be welcome.

Delicious refreshments were served in the dining room.

W. C. T. U. Meeting

The Belle Rogers Union will meet Tuesday afternoon, June 20th, in the parlor of Armory Hall. A good program of speeches and music is assured. Reports of delegates to state convention will be discussed and arrangements made for a picnic on July 4th to be held in Orange County Park, in which all the Unions of Orange county are urged to participate. It is planned to make this event a campaign rally day in which the dry federation workers will unite with the W. C. T. U. and have an all-day meeting with good speakers, good music, good lunches and good fellowship generally.

Come to the meeting tomorrow afternoon and help arrange a program representing every union in Orange county. Garden Grove is going to have a medal contest on the program, and the Belle Rogers Union will furnish its part. Now what will you do as individuals and societies towards having a campaign rally day that will set the wheels going?

Miss Buckley to Sing Tonight

Miss Oneta Buckley, one of Santa Ana's popular singers, will make her debut before West End Theater audience this evening. Miss Buckley will appear at the West End tonight, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, rendering an entire change of songs on Wednesday evening. She will leave Thursday morning for a several weeks' trip through the East.

Miss Buckley has a big following of friends here, who will no doubt be on hand to hear her on her farewell appearance.

Masonic Banquet, Confer Degrees

Santa Ana Lodge, No. 241, F. & A. M., held very interesting ceremonies Saturday beginning at 4:30 p. m., with the conferring of the third degree of Masonry.

Following these ceremonies, a sumptuous banquet was served at 6:30 o'clock, under the supervision of Mrs. Susie Mara. Covers were laid for 250 and the long tables held trailers of asparagus ferns and Shasta daisies, making a very pretty effect. The menu consisted of cream of celery soup, chicken pates, croquettes, creamed peas in pate shells, scalloped potatoes, hot rolls, pickles, olives, combination salad, coffee, ice cream and cake.

In the evening the Edison Electric team of Los Angeles conferred the degree upon the second candidate.

Awarded Gold Medal

Guy Wicks was awarded the gold medal awarded at the Woman's Relief Corps' Flag day entertainment at G. A. R. hall Saturday evening. A large audience enjoyed the temperance speeches of the young contestants.

AT THE COUNTRY CLUB

Mrs. H. T. Rutherford Will Be Hostess At Bridge For July

The regular afternoon Country Club auction bridge party last Saturday was a very pleasant affair and completed Mrs. R. R. Shafer's month as acting hostess. She was assisted by Mrs. W. F. Lutz and Mrs. Fred Parsons. Next month Mrs. H. T. Rutherford will be hostess.

On Saturday the club rooms were transformed into a riot of bloom with hundreds of gorgeous dahlias, grown at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Scott. The rich-hued blossoms were artistically arranged in graceful baskets, Mrs. Shafer estimating that she had been provided with fully one thousand of the flowers.

Ten tables were occupied by the interested players and the trophies went to Mrs. Alice Harris, Mrs. A. W. Rutan and Mrs. W. A. Huff.

Before the ladies departed they enjoyed a social hour with the service of tea and wafers.

Merry Hearts Embroidery Club

Miss Helen Menges was hostess on Saturday afternoon to the Merry Hearts Embroidery Club at her charming home on East First street. Cecile Brunner roses were used for decoration and the girls spent the time happily with social conversation, fancy work and music.

Before the time for separating, Miss Menges served dainty refreshments for her guests, who were Misses Alice Prather, Marjorie Cranston, Vivienne Burge, Josephine Wagner, Anna Grace McElree, Roberta Doughart and Ella Davis.

J. F. F. Club

The J. F. F. Club met at the home of Miss Mary Smith Saturday evening.

Music and singing passed the greater part of the evening. In the song called "You'd Never Know That Old Home Town of Mine," Miss Aletta Merigold did more than her share. The members also enjoyed a Spanish dance by Miss Myrtle Law and a Hula dance by Miss Aletta Merigold. About 9 o'clock the chauffeur came and took all the members of the club for a drive in the beautiful moonlight.

Upon the return from the drive the dining room table was beautifully decorated in red and white, and most delicious refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Bernice Bull, on June 27.

In Turtling Auto Two Men Are Injured

In attempting to avoid a collision with an approaching motorcycle, D. McKenzie of Anaheim turned the wheel of an automobile he was driving too quickly, and the machine rolled completely over.

McKenzie and his companion, George Click of Anaheim, were hurled from the car, and while both men received injuries, neither was seriously hurt. At first it was thought that Click had been badly injured. Today, however, it was stated that he has no worse injuries than bruises and lacerations. Though bruised, McKenzie is able to be about.

The accident occurred on the Newport Beach boulevard near Harper. McKenzie states that he was going about twenty-five miles an hour when he had to make a quick turn to avoid striking a motorcycle. In an instant the automobile went over. The top and windshield were smashed off, and the rear wheels of the car gave way. The machine was otherwise badly damaged. The two men were taken to Anaheim. The machine belongs to Dr. W. S. McFarlane, veterinary surgeon of Anaheim. Click works for him.

HONORED PUBLIC OFFICIAL IS LAID TO HIS LAST REST

High Tribute Is Paid to City Recorder J. A. Willson, Who Died Last Week

The flag at the city hall hung at half mast Saturday and silent were all the rooms—there was an air of desolation about the place and sadness reigned for one of the officials had forever finished his work and the chair in the office of the city recorder would no longer be occupied by Judge J. A. Willson, who for so many years had dispensed justice to his fellow man.

Judge Willson has passed on to a nobler field; he passed over the border last Thursday, the end coming quite suddenly, although his health had been poor for two years, but until a little over a week ago he had performed his duties at the city hall.

The last sad rites for this honored and respected citizen were held this afternoon at Smith & Tutthill's chapel, which was filled to capacity with friends and neighbors, officials of both city and county and Confederate comrades of other days, all gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to the kindly southern gentleman, who will greet them no more.

Rev. J. A. Stevenson of the First Presbyterian Church officiated at the services, opened by a beautiful solo sung by Mrs. Margaret Caldwell Gehret, accompanied by Mrs. J. A. Stevenson, "There's a City Four Square."

Rev. Stevenson paid beautiful tribute to Judge Willson, saying that for many years the people had expressed their confidence in him by giving him the highest privilege possible, that of dispensing justice to his fellow man. The speaker said that he could add nothing to the value of the life and service that was known by those who knew him, honored him and trusted him and who were present to pay a tribute to his memory.

He was a kindly, courteous, Christian gentleman. Kindly, courteous, Christian—what more can be said? He had lived his life, the race is run and he has gone on.

Friends were not present because of discouragement and lack of hope, but here because of faith in God, who cares for us and faith in our fellow man, who has done his work and his duty.

Death is but an incident but life is eternal and abiding while death is but transition, the beginning and not the ending. All life is full of resurrection and we see it day by day and year by year. After the cold of winter comes the life of spring, after the death of the bulb comes the lily, after the seed comes the corn in the ear, and after the darkness of night comes the sun.

Judge Willson has lived his life, his work is done, his place has been filled; he has gone on to do better work, to fill a larger place and live a fuller, freer, better life.

Jesus Christ took the sting out of death and won the victory over death. Judge Willson has left a heritage of a character unstained. We should not fear death but fear to live ignobly, so that like him we can say, "I have finished the work Thou has given me to do."

Rev. Stevenson finished with a sweet and comforting prayer and Mrs. Gehret sang "Abide With Me."

A wealth of beautiful flowers surrounded the bier, showing the esteem in which the deceased was held.

The pallbearers were District Attorney L. A. West, Theo. Lacy, St. Paul Anderson of the city water department, Officer John Ryan, City Trustee Walter Greenleaf and Sheriff C. E. Jackson. Interment was had in Santa Ana cemetery.

An Interesting Life
J. A. Willson was born near Lexington, Rockbridge county, Va., October 22, 1838, receiving his education in the schools of Lexington and Brownsville. At Lexington he married Miss Lavinia Wallace and of the union four children were born, Mrs. W. W. Henry, Mrs. J. E. Copeland, Dunlap and Scott Willson, all residing here.

Leaving Virginia, the family resided at Sherman, Texas, where Judge Willson was in the dry goods business, coming to Santa Ana in 1887. His first wife having passed away, Judge Willson married Mrs. Henrietta Jackson, who survives him. They were married here nearly sixteen years ago.

Judge Willson was a Confederate war veteran, having been captain of Company H, Rockbridge Guards, Twenty-fifth Virginia Infantry, and fought all through the war, being wounded in the hip. At the time of his death, he was commander of Hi Bledsoe Camp.

Judge Willson was the last surviving pallbearer for General Robert E. Lee, whose funeral occurred at Lexington, Va., the two families having been close friends.

DEPUTY SHERIFF RUNS ESCAPED PRISONER IN TO A TREE AT ANAHEIM

Joe Morales is back in jail with a six-months' sentence in front of him. Months ago he started to serve the sentence, but he managed to escape from a road repair gang a day or two after he started his term.

Hearing that Morales had been seen at Anaheim, Deputy Sheriff Eells went there Saturday night. He saw Morales get out of a jitney, and started after him. Morales ran down an alley, through a saloon without stopping to get a drink, along a crowded street, and headed for the tall and uncut orchards in one country. Eells stepped his best, and finally ran Morales into an orange orchard, where he climbed a tree. Eells dragged him out.

MEXICAN FAMILIES WHO SUFFERED BY FIRE ARE STILL IN NEED OF AID

Ten Mexican families were burned out of house and home in the fire on East First street on last Wednesday afternoon. Rev. A. C. Gonzales came quickly to the scene of his people's misfortune and got into communication at once with the Santa Ana Associated Charities. The Associated Charities communicated with the office of the County Aid Commissioner, of the sheriff and the Santa Ana police.

By co-operative effort the families were all found homes before nightfall, and there was a supper and breakfast served for the sufferers in the Mexican Methodist Episcopal church, to which the Bon Ton Bakery, Mrs. W. D. Baker, the Dragon and the Union Grocery contributed provisions. A number of the families lost everything and to these, friends have been kind in sending bedding, clothing and bedsteads. Stoves and more bedding are still needed. If sent through the office of the Associated Charities, effort will be made to see that these goods are judiciously distributed.

THIEF STEALS THIRTY POUNDS OF COFFEE

Somebody is going to enjoy coffee brewed from the Ben Hur brand for some months to come, and without expense to himself. Henry Seidel of the Gem Market will have to foot the bill.

Someone stole thirty one-pound cans from the Gem Market Fiesta de Luz night. A case containing this number of tins was received late Thursday afternoon, and was left in a hall at the rear of the shop proper. The door to the hall from the alley was left open, and the thief had no difficulty in reaching the case of coffee. He took every can, very kindly leaving the box. Mr. Seidel hasn't the slightest clue upon which to work.

THIRTY TONS OF COTS WILL BE HARVEST IN COUNTY

Thirty tons of dried apricots against a usual production of from 1100 to 1500 tons in Orange county tells the story of the situation in this county this season. It not only means less money for the growers, but also less pin money for the women and children, thousands of whom have heretofore found from three to six weeks' employment at fair wages during the season.

The fruit is ripening two or three weeks earlier than usual, and some fruit is being put out in this vicinity this week. At El Toro pickers and pitters were busy most all the week in some of the orchards, and this week drying operations are in full force. The cots are unusually fine as all the sap has gone into the few on the trees. Forty dollars is the average price offered for the green fruit for canning purposes, with some offers of $50 for extra fine fruit. Very little has been sold green, and very little effort has been made to buy the green product in this county, because of the fact that there are no large canneries in operation here. It is said that in some orchards there is absolutely no fruit. Twelve cents is predicted as the ruling price for dried cots, with a possible increase to 15 cents.

HALF CROP AT HEMET

HEMET, June 19.—The fruit season in the Hemet Valley is on in full force. The apricots ripened earlier this year than ever before, due to the extremely light crop. Both of the Hemet canneries are hard at work and are employing about 500 people. This number will probably be doubled when the peaches come in, as the peach crop here is heavier than for several years past.

The new cannery of the Hemet-San Jacinto Growers' Association has just been completed and is one of the largest and most modern in the state. The apricot crop was at first estimated at 40 per cent of normal but this estimate has been increased to 50 per cent, as the fruit is being picked. The fruit is the largest and best ever grown in the valley. The apricot crop of the valley will amount to about 900 tons.

QUALITY EXCELLENT

SAN BERNARDINO, June 19.—The apricot crop in the San Bernardino Valley is light this year, but a better quality of fruit has never been grown, according to the fruit men. The entire strength of the trees has gone into a yield of less than half of the usual amount and the result has been great, fine "cots" that are perfect for canning. And that is where most of them are going. The canning men have been busy buying up the crop and the apricots are selling for more money in the markets this year than ever before. The canneries at Ontario, Chino, Hemet and Banning are all working. Some are handling as high as 200 tons of apricots each day. The peach crop is to be heavier than

FRANK CASE FIGURES IN GEORGIA ELECTION

ATLANTA, Ga., June 19.—That the case of Leo M. Frank is to figure in the gubernatorial election in Georgia this year is made certain by a perusal of the platform of Hugh M. Dorsey, who, as solicitor-general of Fulton county, was the prosecutor in that famous case.

Although no names of officials or prisoners are mentioned, it is plain that Dorsey is referring to the action of Gov. Slaton in commuting the sentence of the slayer of Mary Phagan, at the very opening of the declaration of principles on which he seeks the Governor's office.

A large part of his platform is given up to a discussion of the necessity of law enforcement and the abuse of the clemency power.

EXTREME WEAKNESS AND SUFFERING

Read How Mrs. Goodling got Relief and Strength.

York, Pa.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and found it to be all you say it is. I was so sick that I could not stand at my sink to wash dishes and I could not sit without a pillow under me. I had the doctor every few days but since I have taken the Compound I don't have to send for him. I have had three children and could not raise any of them, but since I have taken the Compound I have a bright baby boy. I advise every suffering woman to try it and get relief. It has done wonders for me."—Mrs. CATHERINE GOODLING, 138 E. King Street, York, Pa.

When a medicine has been successful in bringing health to so many, no woman has a right to say without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." There must be more than a hundred thousand women in this country who, like Mrs. Goodling, have proven what wonders Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can do for weak and ailing women. Try it and see for yourself.

TEMPLAR PAGEANT ON AGAIN TONIGHT

LOS ANGELES, June 19.—To the worship of the Supreme Grand Commander of all was given over much of Sunday by the Knights Templar who have come to Los Angeles for the thirty-third triennial convocation and the centennial anniversary of their order.

In the morning many of the Knights, including Acting Grand Master Right Eminent Sir Lee S. Smith and Eminent Sir William Wallace Youngson of Portland, Ore., and grand prelate of the Oregon Grand Commandery, attended services at the First Methodist Church, where the Rev. C. E. Locke, the pastor, preached on "Modern Chivalry."

In the afternoon the centennial and devotional exercises of the convocation itself were held in Temple Auditorium, which was crowded with members, their relatives and as many of the general public as could crowd into seats which were not reserved for visiting Knights.

An impressive formality preceding the opening of the exercises was the passage of Acting Grand Master Smith and his official family from their headquarters in the Hotel Alexandria to the Auditorium.

Today members of Grand Encampment and accompanying women are enjoying an outing at Santa Catalina. Many Sir Knights and ladies are spending the day at Pasadena, for entertainment in regal style.

At 9 p. m. there will be a reception in honor of the Acting Grand Master, Right Eminent Sir Lee S. Smith, given by the Grand Commandery of California, in the ballroom of the Hotel Alexandria, for members of the Grand Encampment, past and present officers of the various jurisdictions and for Sir Knights and ladies.

At 9:15 there will be the second showing of the electrical pageant, "The Flight of the Hours." It will start from Pico street and Grand avenue, encircling the amphitheater in the block surrounded by Pico, Hope and Twelfth streets and Grand avenue and going north on Grand to Seventh street; east to Broadway; north to Second street; east to Spring street; south to Main and continuing south to Jefferson street, where it will disband. The downtown business district will be reached about 10 o'clock.

was at first expected. The warm weather has ripened the fruit rapidly.

Grocerteria Advice

Heigh Ho, the dear housewife and family man
Who try to make a dollar go as far as it can.
It never will work to save up for a day
And then on the next let things come as they may.
If we would truly live and thrive
We have to be careful three hundred and sixty-five,
And when Leap Year comes to our door
We have to figure just that much more.
If we would profit by good advice
We'd keep away from the "special price,"
It's something like fishhook and mouse traps you know,
To catch us and keep us when nibbling we go.
Let others go browsing, if that is their taste,
If they have both time and money to waste,
But let's trade at the store where prices ne'er soar,
And none are so low but they can go lower.
It seems but the natural, sensible way,
Not for service, but for quality food-stuffs to pay;
If a maid in the home is for you out of reach,
Help doesn't come less at the store or the beach.
It is cheapest and best as anyone can see,
To be trading with us at the Triangle G.

can embassy delivered a secret note to Secretary Lansing, presumably a request that this government's answer be hastened.

The mobilization of militia proceeded throughout the country.
No orders dispatching these forces to the border had been announced up to noon. Many of the troops may never see border duty. Making them available, however, is a precaution, calling Carranza's bluff and perhaps averting war.

"Acid Test"
WASHINGTON, June 19.—President Wilson today awaited the result of the "acid test" applied to the business men of the country following the issuance of the orders for mobilization. On May 30th President Wilson told the Civil War veterans that "within a month" it might be up to the nations' chiefs to determine whether the new militia law was to receive the support which might be expected from the business men in their enthusiasm for preparedness.

Jap Fires on Officers
WASHINGTON, June 19.—Two American naval officers attempting a land at Mazatlan were fired on by a drunken Japanese and both officers were arrested, but later they were released.

Headquarters Selected
WASHINGTON, June 19.—Announcement has been made of the practical decision to make Bridgehampton, L. I., at least temporarily the summer headquarters of Charles E. Hughes, Republican presidential candidate. Returning from Providence on Thursday night, Mr. Hughes will devote Friday to conferences in New York and on Saturday take up his residence at Bridgehampton. It is altogether likely the official notification ceremonies will be held there.
Not longer than a month will be spent at Bridgehampton, however. Before starting on his active campaign, Mr. Hughes wants a few weeks in the hills and a mountain resort undoubtedly will be selected for the first three weeks of August.
Mr. Hughes left Washington last night on the 12:40 train for New York. This afternoon he was scheduled to confer with the steering committee of the Republican National Committee on campaign plans.

The screech of electric car wheels rounding a curve at Santa Clara avenue connecting the Pacific Electric Company with the Southern Pacific, will not be heard, according to reports on the streets today. Rumor has it that the city council tonight will refuse to grant the application of the electric company for permission to establish connection with the steam line at Santa Clara avenue.

McPhee and Maryatt have been opposed to the application from the start, and it is stated today that one or more of the three members of the board who have been inclined to favor the proposition, or have not committed themselves, have decided now to come out in opposition.
The meeting of the city board tonight promises to be a lively one and a large crowd is expected to be present.

O. J. Hill, gardener, 720 E. Pine St., Santa Ana, says: "I do a lot of stooping over and I think that was what weakened my kidneys and caused pains in my back. At times when I raised up, I couldn't move on account of a sharp pain which caught me across my loins. The action of my kidneys was too frequent, causing me to get up several times during the night. I had severe headaches. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and four boxes, procured from Wingood's Drug Store relieved the pains and regulated the kidney action."

AT THE COURTHOUSE REFUSES TO LET
NESBITT OUT
WITHOUT HE GIVES BOND

So Far Thirty Garden Grove People Not Found to Take $100 Chance

George Nesbitt is still in jail, and the chances of getting a $3000 bond, ordered as a requirement for probation, for him are reported to be exceedingly slim.

A report to that effect was made to Judge Thomas this morning by Attorney A. W. Rutan, who appeared for Nesbitt at the hearing Friday. Rutan asked the judge to withdraw the requirement for a bond. The judge refused to change the order.

The requirement was an unusual one. Nesbitt, who pleaded guilty to manslaughter in that he drove the automobile that killed Miss Isabel Thomas at Garden Grove, was sentenced to ten years in San Quentin, but was ordered suspended. Probation is to be given when thirty people have signed an obligation to turn $100 apiece into the county treasury if Nesbitt breaks his probation.

Saturday Fred Andres secured the blank bonds from the district attorney's office, and attempted to get signatures at Garden Grove. Many of those who had signed the petition for probation refused to sign the bond. Some of them said they had signed expecting that when Nesbitt got probation he would join the army. Judge Thomas, however, has not consented to allowing Nesbitt to join the army. Six or eight names are reported to be upon the bond.

Attorney Rutan argued to the judge that if Nesbitt is entitled to probation he is entitled to it without a bond, but the judge could not see it that way.

BERLIN, June 19.—It was today officially admitted that the Russians are progressing in the Caucasus region.

Petrograd Captured
The anticipated capture of Czernowitz, capital of Bukovina, by the advancing Russian army under General Lechitsky was announced by the War Office last night.

The city withstood the fierce Russian attack until Saturday, despite unofficial reports during the past week of its evacuation by the Austrians.

Last night the forces which held it were in flight through the passes of the Carpathians, pursued by the swiftly moving Russians.

The capture is most notable, involving as it does the passing of control of several important railway lines into the hands of the Czar's forces. Reports reaching here last night were to the effect that both sides suffered heavily in the final battle.

It was disapproved of by the majority of the owners. It is expected that the number of local buses will be limited in the city.

JAPANESE LEPER HAS ESCAPED FROM THE COUNTY FARM

The Japanese leper who has been at the county farm for over a year and a half, escaped Saturday or Sunday night. He took his bedding with him.

This man originally came from Los Angeles. He was kept at the county farm for a time, but escaped and was gone for several weeks. Since a year ago last October he has occupied a small house built for him. He had a garden, running water, cooked with gas, a bathtub, and other conveniences, but he grew lonesome.

The leper walks with a limp. He is heavy set, about 38 years old, and has a bald spot on his head, and has lumps on his ears. If the man is seen, notice of that fact should be telephoned to Dr. Zaiser at the County Hospital.
